Presidents Report 01-04-14

Extensive District and in house vision process culminated in participation from all members. An additional requirement to complete these brainstorming sessions were held over a 3 month period, earlier start and later finishes, I congratulate all coaches and members for there involvement and what we will achieve is a better understanding, and overwhelming support for future projects and club meeting formats. Of course these changes can be fine tuned in time to come, we must not forget the contribution by Rotarian Graeme Pledge in submitting a selection of agendas for us to choose.

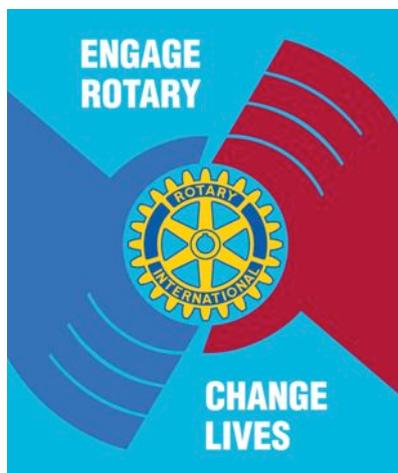

We once again welcomed visitor Annie Blair, we appreciate Annie's input into the visioning process, and information is no doubt being collected and added to her list of understanding "OF WHAT IN THE WORLD DOES ROTARY DO". We hope you enjoy the journey ahead Annie.

Tuesday 25th Author and Rotarian Julie Davey and President had an enjoyable Morning distributing 40 plus A for Attitude books to grade 3 students at Eastbourne Primary School, all excited to receive their personal autographed copy. One little chap said I sounded like his grandpa so all these students have been invited to call me Par Doug. It never ends as to what comes out of little one's mouth, they certainly can surprise you.

To make you smileIrish Mirror

After living in the remote countryside of Ireland all his life, an old Irishman decided it was time to visit Dublin.

In one of the stores, he picks up a mirror and looks into it.

Not ever having seen a mirror before, he remarked at the image staring back at him.

'How 'bout that!' he exclaims, 'Here's a picture of my Fadder.'

He bought the mirror thinking it was a picture of his dad, but on the way home he remembered his wife didn't like his father, so he hung it in the shed, and every morning before leaving to go fishing, he would go there and look at it.

His wife began to get suspicious of his many trips to the shed.

So, one day after her husband left, she went to the shed and found the mirror.

As she looked into the glass, she fumed, 'So that's the ugly woman he's running around with.'

SNOW PLOUGHING IN DUBLIN

On a bitterly cold winter morning a husband and wife in Dublin were listening to the radio during breakfast. They heard the announcer say, "We are going to have 8 to 10 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the even-numbered side of the street, so the Snow ploughs can get through. "So the good wife went out and moved her car.

A week later while they are eating breakfast again, the radio announcer said, "We are expecting 10 to 12 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the odd-numbered side of the street, so the snow ploughs can get through. "The good wife went out and moved her car again.

The next week they are again having breakfast, when the radio announcer says, "We are expecting 12 to 14 inches of snow today. You must park..." Then the electric power went out. The good wife was very upset, and with a worried look on her face she said, "I don't know what to do. Which side of the street do I need to park on so the snow ploughs can get through?" Then with the love and understanding in his voice that all men who are married to blondes exhibit, the husband replied, "Why don't you just leave the car in the garage this time?"
