President's Message 3-06-14

Last week on reflection of some of our Rotary Clubs achievements, Projects, over the past 59 years. President Doug quoted from historical records kept by members of the club and put together by Past President & Paul Harris fellow Sapphire Pin recipient. And last but not least a humble treasurer, secretary and Rotary Op-Shop manager, and good all round Rotarian. Of which our club members are most grateful for her valuable contribution now residing in South Gippsland and best wishes to Beryl and Alan.

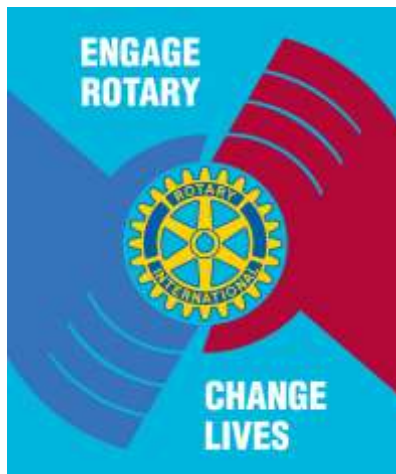

Thankyou members for being involved and reminiscing last week, this is what it is all about. Have a good laugh and enjoy our successes remember keep (politics-lobbying) secular beliefs and or discussions of these right out of Rotary. To ignore this will be to the detriment of the membership of a club.

Good to see you again Annie Blaire look forward to seeing you next meeting.

Congratulations Pat and Manuela our Sausage sizzlers raised over $600.00 at last 2 Sizzles. Thankyou for giving up your time and would like to inform you will be recognised in the forth coming Hospital Newsletter.

Rotarian Dorothy reported the worlds biggest morning tea at Rye Hotel realised $3000.00 toward cancer research, well done Dorothy.

To our Rotarians who are representing our club at the 105th Rotary International Conference, we no you will do us proud enjoy and soak up a once in a lifetime opportunity to mix with the greatest humanitarians in the world. We noted on channel two viewing Prime Minister with leaders of Rotary International President Doug Hellenen

A list of achievements of the Club is included as an attachment as it is far too long to fit here.

Don't forget that on the 17th June we have another outstanding guest speaker in Julie Eisenbise who will outline her incredible career. This is an opportunity to invite partners and friends to what will be an inspiring evening. Julie's bio is right there on our website.

Hello from the Convention in Sydney

Lee, Libby, Pat and I are having a busy time making contacts, getting inspired and hopefully getting wiser.
 Julie is doing a sterling job on her Attitude books stand and promoting our Club at the same time.
 Those of you who are not here are missing a great event.

We will come back with renewed enthusiasm, lots of ideas and ideas for making our club better and stronger.

Watch this space!
