President's Message 10-06-14

Last week 3-06 a very cosy for memory 7 members with 5 at Rotary International conference Sydney, NSW. Rotarians Geoff Pledge and Claire Burns had used their thought bubbles wisely how to entertain the group and proceeded with what's knew in your business. Neil, field of medicine, Dorothy hotelier, Geoff and Claire teaching, Zoe newspaper publishing, and Barbara book keeping and yours truly enjoying the passion of each on reports in their chosen field with much passion. Thankyou all for your contribution to the meeting a very relaxed and enjoyable evening. Thankyou Barbara English offered to liase with Mt Eliza Rotary club, distributor of bowel scan kits, retail outlet for these Amcal chemist Rosebud K Mart Plaza Thanks Barb much appreciated and should members require them you now no where to get them. Following a report on the conference in Sydney attendees Libby Wilson, Julie Davey, Brian Davenport, Pat Sansonetti, Lee Stanford, following a report on Rye Foreshore Market. Doctor Neil left his bag of instruments in the surgery if he had them with him he may have been able to use his stetha - scope on the motor of the 4 wheel drive (Food Van Hauler)to hear the gallons of fluid, smelt like petrol, said Pat that was gurgling in the system. I think the term is flooded (Flooded) stick to your cooking PP Neil

Our Mate Bazza is in good spirits but get very tired which is understandable, sicking to his diet and Matron Lyn has him well in control. Presented Barry and Lynn with 2 hanging baskets of flowers and a card from us all with directions make your self cosy a couple of pillows and rest.
