President's Message

Most of us were exposed to a very emotional and reflective weekend with saturation levels of reminders of the horrors of war and human suffering. There were record numbers of attendances in towns across Australia, France and of course Gallipoli, all to acknowledge and maybe to some degree celebrate our one hundredth year of ANZAC. But it was mostly to 'Remember and Honour' all those who fought under our flag in different wars to sustain our way of life and freedom.

There was a huge crowd at the Rosebud R S L dawn service and again at the Rosebud Primary School. I would like to thank Rotarian Ken Healy for laying a wreath for Rotary on behalf of our club.

Last week we had a special guest from Philip Island R C. to assess our progress since we first undertook our own visioning program last October. Phil Dressings is a passionate driver of such initiatives and was keen to see what we had implemented into our weekly plan. This will in time map the path of our club in the coming years. 'Not having a plan is a plan to fail' - I have heard this many times and it is just as true as the first time I heard it.

This Tuesday night we are meeting at the Warehouse at the normal time. Nick will be our in-house chef, and his speciality is Greek Lamb and for all those that attend this will be a treat to remember, so bring some wine and look forward to a social evening with the main topics up for discussion being 'the changeover' and our fifty year celebration since the charter of Rosebud Club.

Please call Mandy direct and apologize if not coming by two pm Tuesday otherwise if you are on the list as coming you will be charged $20.00. Please help Mandy out while Brian is having a long overdue break. Last week only nine attended the meeting and we were charged for thirteen, so there goes $80 of club funds.

So please pick up the phone.

Also please note that next Saturday is market day at Rye, and extra support may be needed.

Pat's son in law was killed on Friday night. Please support him and family during this very sad and extremely difficult time. Our thoughts go out to Pat and family.

Regards to all.

President Lee
