President's Message

On Tuesday night we had our regular meeting at our opportunity warehouse in Newington Avenue. This was a very relaxed night with four guests and eleven members attending. The guests included visiting Rotarians Camel and John Love from North Albury Club. They have rented a house in Rye for a year and have quickly become active in the club. John helped Don with the market mark out on Friday and I was pleased to see Carmel under Neil's watchful eye don an apron and help in the food van. A great effort guys and a big thank you.

Nick who is the resident coordinator and youth worker with the Fight 4 Life Club was a chef in his past life. So he offered to cook Greek lamb for our members, and what a great meal it was! Carol, a new friend to Rotary, made two magnificent pavlovas, so everyone was spoilt with a really great meal. The measure of its popularity being that not a spoonful of either was left over. My warm thanks to both Nick and Carol for their efforts.

Signage has been a big issue for both the warehouse and the market and we seem to have made inroads to improving both. We now have a permit for an A frame sign on Boneo/Colchester Roads and Colchester/ Newington corner. Also a new sign on Nepean Highway in Rye announcing the market is on. Another large sign on the fence of Rosebud Secondary College really gives the Rye Market great exposure and is only put up on the day before and removed the next day. Thanks to the College staff and the members who organised these signs. Also a special thanks to Barry Irving for putting the new menu board in place, it looks great!

While we are talking about the warehouse I have had some favourable comments about the staff and quality and variety of goods on offer. This is great to hear as it's always a challenge to find the right range and quality of goods that will appeal to the widest variety of customers.

The meeting this week is back at Rosebud Country Club and we will be having a visit from the RACV presentation team, so we are looking forward to another great meeting. Please make an effort to make our guests feel very welcome. Brian is back from his trip so please do the right thing and let him know if you are not coming.

Regards

President Lee

Our Club expresses its deep sympathy to the Sansonetti family and in particular daughter Liana and her children following the sudden death of their husband and father, Dene.

Our thoughts are with the family at this difficult time.
