In the absence of President Lee, something different. If you remember Russ Tyson you are showing your age!

The Committeeman

- If he is usually at the Club - he haunts the place.
- If he's not there when wanted – he's never on the job.
- If he talks on a subject – he's always trying to run things.
- If he reminds you of a Club rule you have broken – he's always standing over members.
- If he is silent – he has lost interest.
- If he agrees with you – he's a 'yes' man and lacks originality.
- If he doesn't agree with you – he's ignorant.
- If he takes a holiday – he's been on one all year anyway.
- If he is not well dressed – he's not upholding the dignity of the Club.
- If he is well dressed – he thinks he's a big shot.
- If he's been on the committee a long time – he's in a rut.
- If he's been on the committee a short time – he lacks experience.
- If he tries to see both sides of a question – he is two faced.
- If he can't give an immediate response – he is incompetent.
- If he gives you an immediate answer – he doesn't think things over.
- If he appears aloof – he should be trimmed down to size.
- If he has a strong opinion - he is bull headed.

From Russ Tyson's New Philosophy 1970 (Before equal opportunity)
