Guest speaker, Grahame Gordon with his wife Jill and Brian Davenport adding decoration to the new banner.

Grahame Gordon, President of Frankston Rotary Club, shared his club's experience with membership recruitment. Information provided and suggestions made by Graham will certainly prove valuable as we finalize our membership plan in the next couple of weeks.

Speaking of Membership:

Three top tips from the Canberra Conference

- 1) What was OK 5 years ago may not be OK today
- 2) Consider alternative models of clubs and membership
- 3) Optimize public image

We're off to a good start with reviewing how the public sees us & Barry Irving will be re-starting the Rotary page in the paper in the near future.

Camilla told us of the great weekend she spent with the other Youth Exchange students at Neerim South. Since returning from camp, Camilla has been able to spend some time with a couple of the other students who were visiting the Southern Peninsula.

Vale Ken Castley

It is with regret that we learned of Ken's death. Don Clarkson remembers Ken as a very welcoming and active Rotarian. His wife Heather, who was a Rotary "Ann" was also very active in the club. Ken served as Rosebud President in 1986/7.

Our most recent Four minutes of Famers both illustrated where intestinal fortitude and determination can take you. This week Barbara English told us of her participation in a world record-breaking swim at the tender age of 76 –she had a certificate to prove it!

Last week Judy Phelan spoke of her Walk in the Park for Parkinson’s supported by her husband Ian, on 30 August. At this moment, Judy’s total funds raised stands at $9325.25 –the leading individual fundraiser. Her target for this year was $10,000 so hopefully between now and 30th September, late donors will help Judy reach her goal at <http://www.parkinsonswalk.com.au/>
