2014 Exchange student Lyz Holtz is obviously back into the "swim" of things!

The week started at the Volunteer Expo organized by Rye Beach Community House Manager, Kerryn Liddell (left with Gun Davenport). Rosebud-Rye Rotary was one of 8 organizations represented. We had expressions of interest from several people present who wanted to find out more about Rotary and/or volunteering at the Warehouse. Also good to see numerous people enquiring about the Literacy Project at Seawinds Hub.

Recognize anyone???

This week's Tuesday's Four Minutes of Fame was presented by Zoë Sterling

To some of you I might appear to be little old Mr. Magoo, and in some ways this is true.

Before I lost my sight, however, I had a wonderful career in the media, notably newspapers, and was an active Rotarian.

Unfortunately I lost my peripheral vision and my forward vision is both limited and blurred. I could no longer work or drive and minor activities became major challenges. Eventually I contacted Vision Australia.

The staff were wonderful, providing invaluable information, teaching me to use a cane, making my house more user friendly, connecting me with other blind or low vision people, and providing a wide array of aids and services. I am thankful for what I can still do and grateful to remain a Rotarian - with thanks to those members who provide transport and ease my way through meetings. I remain committed and will do what I can to support Rotary and Rosebud-Rye

The Peninsula Health & Wellness Expo on Sunday was an opportunity to promote the Mindfulness Festival to be held at Boneo Maze on 28 November as well as The Wellness Pavilion Project. Community members seem to be very supportive of the project.

DIK (Donations in Kind)

Visiting the Warehouse at Footscray (left) on Saturday was an eye opener. Major challenges include finding a club/organization/person in the receiving country to manage the donation at that end. Goods can also be used for projects in Australia. There is an amazing array of clothes donated, not only by schools & organizations, but closing down stores.
