Rotarian Col Gibbons revealed his artistic side at the meeting last Week during Four Minutes of Fame. Col was "fairly good" at art at school. He thought he would pursue a career as a commercial artist but, after the principal persuaded his parents that this was not a good idea, he became a carpenter.

When he retired in November 1993, he knew some day he would start art again.

A few years later he took an interest in folk art and spent three years having lessons with a group of women around a table, "like sitting in a hen house!" After not being able to learn any more, he wanted to learn "real art", and had traditional art lessons for six years. He joined the Peninsula Arts Society at Mt Eliza and then the Oak Hill Gallery Society. Col now has his first solo exhibition on show at Oak Hill. It was also revealed that Col likes to ride his Harley-Davidson motorcycle.

On Sunday 14th, Lyn, the incoming DG, held an "informal afternoon tea to meet Presidents and Secretaries elect. Amongst other things, Lyn revealed that the 2017 District Conference will be in Hobart on 24-26 March!!!

Bulletin: Thanks to Zoe Sterling who has agreed to report on the Guest Speakers and Four Minute of Fame speakers at our meetings. The week between the times at which the Bulletin is sent out, goes very quickly. Zoe's offer and Gun photographing the speaker with a proper camera, rather than me using my mobile phone camera, will make the production of the Bulletin a lot easier.

Something Fishy??? Doug and Neil won 2nd & 3rd prizes in the raffle—now have drawn the winning ticket at consecutive meetings??
